INTERFAITH COMMUNITY QUILT GOES ON THE MOVE IN NORTH KIRKLEES

Kirklees interfaith week in November 2022 addressed the theme of 'Home'. Hannah McKerchar, Humanist rep on Kirklees SACRE, proposed the idea of making a community quilt based on people's perceptions of 'Home'. The finished quilt is beautiful, with handmade panels representing and celebrating the diversity of the community. Following a few weeks in Huddersfield Parish Church, it is now on display in Batley Library. The next stop will be Longcausway Church in Dewsbury; it is hoped that as many people as possible will take the opportunity to go and look at it.

During Interfaith week, nearly 2000 primary pupils from Kirklees, Leeds and Calderdale reflected on the theme of 'Home' by participating in an online conference to learn about how Christians, Jews, Hindus and Muslims practise their faith at home. Older pupils were given the opportunity to meet members of faith communities who have come from other countries and made their home in the UK. One teacher commented that this was 'a lovely, thoughtful day with lots of learning and time to reflect.'
