REPRESENTATION OF THE PEOPLE ACT 1983
ELECTORAL REGISTRATION AND ADMINISTRATION ACT 2013

NOTICE OF CONCLUSION OF REVIEW OF POLLING DISTRICTS, POLLING PLACES & POLLING STATIONS

NOTICE IS HEBEY GIVEN that the Borough Council of Calderdale has, in accordance with the Electoral Registration and Administration Act 2013, concluded a review of polling districts, polling places and polling stations in its area. Results of the review are available on the Council's website: Review of polling - districts, places and stations 2023 | Calderdale Council

Copies of representations received and other documentation in connection with the review together with maps showing the revised electoral arrangements, which will be effective from publication of the revised Register of Electors, are available for inspection at Electoral Services, Mulcture House, Mulcture Hall Road, Halifax, HX1 1SP.

Certain persons have a right to appeal:

- A parish council (or if there is no such council, a parish meeting) in England, which is wholly or partly situated within the constituency,
- 30 or more electors in the constituency,
- A person (other than the Returning Officer) who made representations under Schedule A1 of the Representation of the People Act 1983,
- A person who is not an elector in a constituency in the authority's area but who has either sufficient interest in disabled access to polling places in the area or particular expertise in disabled access to premises and facilities.

An appeal can only be made on the grounds that the review was not conducted so as to:

- Meet the reasonable requirements of electors in the constituency,
- Take sufficient account of disabled access to polling stations.

Representations must be made in writing, either by post, email or fax to:
